

Divine Thoughts

Divine Thoughts (divine machashabah) are uniquely superior to human thoughts (Isaiah 55:8-9), with their totality and complexity well beyond human comprehension. Some or all of Divine Thoughts seem to transition into dabor-dabarim (Hebrew) or logos (Greek), which is the verbalized stage of divine thoughts, the second stage of divine transmutation. But this transition from divine machashabah to dabor-dabarim is so timeless in nature so it is extremely difficult if not impossible for humans to distinguish between the two. This is the reason why John wrote (John 1:1) that the "...the logos was YHWH."

Once divine dabor-dabarim transitions, i.e., when divine thought waves (DTWs) transition into spoken words (dabor-dabarim), it becomes immutable (Isaiah 55:11; Job 42:2, etc.); it becomes predictable-prophetic. Divine machashabah/dabor is identified as prognosis and horizo boule' (Acts 2:23) in scripture by Dr. Luke and as a mezimmah (Job 42:2) by Job. Any spoken plan/purpose (spoken divine machashabah) by the Divine cannot be thwarted (Job 42:2); it will not go forth (or return to the Divine) unaccomplished (Isaiah 55:11).

This is the reason why scripture defines divine dabor-dabarim, when reiterated-spoken (martyria) by humans, as the "spirit of prophecy" (Revelation 19:10). It is because verbalized (spoken) thought waves of the divine (DTWs) are already in transmutation stages and will not return unto YHWH until they have accomplished the purpose for which they were spoken (Isaiah 55:11); they will not return to YHWH until they are fully transmuted into their physical-metaphysical equivalents. You can count on the truthfulness and fulfillment of divine dabor (verbalized DTWs) more than you can count on the "sun rising each morning." Seers/prophets merely tapped into and reiterated-spoke pre-existing verbalized DTWs, i.e., dabor/logos (John 1:1; 17:5, 24; 1 Corinthians 2:7; Ephesians 1:4; 2 Timothy 1:9; Titus 1:2; 1 Peter 1:20). They tapped into divine dabor/logos via divine phero-unction (1 Peter 1:21; Luke 1:70; 24:44; Hebrews 1:1). But now, post Pentecost, every royal king-priest of the kingdom can access these already verbalized machashabah (DTWs) more perfectly, via an amalgamation of pneuma/glossalalia and the written word (Holy Writ - which contains many recorded verbalized DTWs).

Transmutation YHWH-ology is a must have book that provides a full treatment of the subject and the multiple ways it will forever change the way you think and live as a believer. Transmutation YHWH-ology (Theology) was developed by Daniel Briggs, Ph.D. Similar discussions can be found in his Transmutation Psychology book as well, where he discusses his electromagnetic brain plasma theory among other developed theories.
